Shoe box appeal

Thank you to all who showed interest and to those that have already started their shoe box . We will be in the Church Centre after Sunday services with knitwear . We are a bit low on mittens and gloves if anyone would like to knit some for us . Wool is available .

Jean and Mike Lambert.

Your Help needed please to tidy northwest corner of churchyard !

This area is in urgent need of tidying up. If you can spare some time John our churchwarden would like to hear from you?

A small team will get it done in no time? Thank you. John Soper

FAMILY SUPPORT

Thank you to all who bring something to our food hopper each week. The organisation were delighted and grateful to see what we had collected for them.

Items most needed at the moment are Babies nappies in the smallest size and any of the Free From products as they are coming across people with allergies and sensitivity to foods. Susan Maund

Kitchen roll tubes: Messy Church needs your spare tubes to make Olympic torches. Please leave in church by midday on Thursday 25th July. Thank you.

Ride and Stride day - 14th Sept (or the week either side). Raising money for Sussex Historic Churches Trust and St Andrews, split 50/50. You can take the usual methods of walking, cycling, running or use any other means of transport to travel between churches. Additionally, you may like to host a coffee morning, walk laps of the garden, or ride a static bike. For more information speak to John or Shirley.

Thank you for the generous donation of new chairs for our children's area. They are beautiful and bring an extra sense of light and joy.

Items for inclusion on the next Pew Sheet please contact Julia on:- Telephone -01903 503571
